We pulled it, but yes now I see we originally pulled it in June for $2620 and then in August we did an acreage increase for another charge or $3295.00.

But yes, for sure need to get that cleared up before renewing, as I have not been contacted by them at all, not sure who the spoke to get the price they sent the CO over for.

Do they have a request in? I checked their permit - it would be 4870 since above 10 acres + 750 fee. I'll having it sitting open - Should I reach out for confirmation? It looks like they filed it themselves so not sure if they meant to ask us.

Is someone renewing the dust permit for them? This seems like an odd price.
